Communique from Greenwood High

Parent Resource Corner

Here are some ways that you can help boost your child's communication skills:

1. Talk about the day's activities.
2. Talk to your child about the best you want to do and why.
3. Talk to your child about TV programs and movies that you watch together.
4. Help your child understand the meaning of new words.
5. Help your child understand the social rules that are important in school.

Teacher's Corner

Words of Wisdom “Bedtime for Ted”

It was night time in Ted’s house. He was really excited! ‘This was going to be the best bedtime story ever!’ he thought. He had been looking forward to it all day. Ted had just finished writing the story, and he was eager to hear it. His mom had said, “It’s time for bed, Ted.” Ted was excited. He wanted to hear the story, but his mom had said, “It’s time for bed, Ted.”

Ted’s mom turned off the light, and Ted was ready to hear the story. “Goodnight, Ted,” said his mom. Ted was ready to hear the story, but his mom had said, “Goodnight, Ted.”

Teacher Humour

1. What is a bear and why do you need one in a storm?
2. What is a bear and why do you need one in a storm?
3. What is a bear and why do you need one in a storm?
4. What is a bear and why do you need one in a storm?
5. What is a bear and why do you need one in a storm?

Greenwood Kinder Buzz

August, 2013